WHAT WAS YOUR PROUDEST TEACHING MOMENT?

Last year, I heard my name being called from across the aisle at a local grocery store. It was a former student, who was waving and smiling at me. The student thanked me over and over for helping him get on track and make better choices in life. When I asked what class he had taken with me, the student explained that hadn't but knew me from the school halls and daily conversations. Our job as teachers goes well beyond the classroom and this moment reminded me of that. I was very proud of the student and glad that I had, in some way, helped him to be successful.

IF YOU WIN, HOW WILL YOU ALLOCATE THE TEACHER AWARDS PRIZE MONEY?

I would purchase new instruments for our music program.
